False Report.

It was reported Tuesday, that Gov Holden had a command of negroes and white men ready to send to this point. The following in answer to a telegram will explain itself:

Raleigh, Oct. 26, '69.

Pay no attention to rumors. I am glad the people are quiet. I hope there will be no more strife and no more violation of law. I am most anxious that the civil law be maintained. I am trying to do right.

W. W. HOLDEN, Gov.

We clip the above from the Hillsboro' Recorder of the 27th inst., says the Raleigh Sentinel. What evidence the editor had for heading the paragraph with the words "False Report," we are unable to discover; certainly there is nothing in Gov. Holden's dispatch to justify them, while on the contrary it is a notorious fact that Bosher and others were enrolling negro militia volunteers here on Saturday, Sunday and Monday last. The Court House, portico and street adjacent, were crowded with these recruits on Monday, who were going through the preliminaries of organization: and they openly spoke of going to Orange and Chatham "to hunt for Ku Klux."

Gov. Holden don't say, in his dispatch, that he has not enrolled negro militia to go to Orange and Chatham, for every body here knows he has, to the number of two hundred or more; some say the number is four hundred. Owing to the manifestation of public feeling on the subject, he may not send them; indeed, we hardly think he will; but they are on the Governor's muster roll, and we suppose, on the pay roll, also, but that is a small matter to people as wealthy and lightly taxed as North Carolinians are, just now!

We notice a number of wagon tracks to the State arsenal; we don't know where the arms were sent. It is rumored that number of negroes in Chatham are being armed, and it may be that arms are being sent there.

P. S. Since writing the above, we find the business of enrolling is still progressing, and are informed that the number of two thousand are called for, by the Governor, not publicly, but secretly, through his confidential agents, who enroll none but negroes, and a great many of them of that vagabond class who, too lazy to work, are strolling about without employment. We are told, as a positive fact, that large quantities of arms and ammunition have been taken from the arsenal and sent off somewhere.

THE PRESENT STATE OF PARTIES.—Parties of this country are just now lying about loose. The Republicans are having a good time because the opposition is discordant and purposeless, although it holds a majority of all the people whenever it can marshal them under one general head of antagonism violence and corruption. The Democrats are having a very poor time because it is impossible to harmonize the various liberal and conservative elements of the country upon issues which are worn out and passing away from existence. Thus the period is transitory. Presently the debris of the war will be cleared off the field, and we shall start forward over the highway which leads to a strong and lasting condition of peace, when all men will be free and equal before the law. Two words are to be blotted from our vocabulary, "nigger" and "rebel" and from the date of their disappearance the Democratic party may date its return to usefulness and power.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

BEEFERS DECISION.—Stock growers who buy cattle and pasture and fatten them and sell them for beef are not cattle brokers in the meaning of the law, and therefore not liable to the special tax. The real cattle broker under this decision is one whose regular business it is to buy and sell cattle in value greater than $10,000 per year, simply for profit.

Proceedings have been instituted in the United States Court against Wm. Smallwood, late postmaster of New Orleans, and his sureties for alleged defalcation of over $19,000 in his account, as agent for the sale of Internal Revenue stamps.

Mr. Fillmore is in his sixtieth year, but he doesn't look sixty. He has a prepossessing and imposing appearance, gray hair, smooth, bushy face, and is nearly six feet high.

"3. That Gen. Grant advanced to Corbin $10,000 or $12,000 to be used as a margin in a speculation in bonds, and that Corbin's brokers purchased $300,000 worth of bonds, to be carried with this margin on account of the President." "4. That Mr. Gould had a personal interview with the President in the summer, at Corbin's house, in which the President told Gould that no gold would be sold before the 1st of November, beyond the regular monthly $2,000,000, and that this information was the basis of the speculation.

"5. That Mrs. Grant was in speculation; $500,000 of gold having been purchased on her account at 132, which was sold when the price had risen to 137, and the profit, amounting to $25,000, was remitted to her.

"6. That when Secretary Boutwell had decided to sell gold and break down the speculation, the President gave a peremptory order to Boutwell forbidding the sale, and that this order was given at the instigation of Corbin.

"7. That the final order for the sale of gold was not given until after Corbin had represented to the President that he was out of the speculation."

The New York Express says: "If Mr. Gould is not romancing he tells a story concerning the recent gold speculations in Wall street which, to say the least of it, is singularly inconsistent with the President's recent letter to Mr. Bonner. These developments are very damaging and very disgraceful as they stand, and if anybody can show that Mr. Gould has been drawing on his imagination for facts, the sooner the task is entered upon, the better for all concerned."

THE IDLE MAN.—The idle man is an annoyance—a nuisance. He is an intruder in the busy thoroughfares of every day life. He stands in our path and we must push him contemptuously aside. He is no advantage to any one. He annoys busy men. He makes them unhappy. He is a cipher in society. He may have an income to support him in idleness, or he may sponge on his good natured friends. But in every case he is despised.

Young men, form habits of industry; do something in this busy, wide awake world. Move about for the benefit of mankind, if not for yourself. Do not be idle. God's law is that by the sweat of our brow we shall earn our bread. This is a good one, and the bread is sweet. Do not be idle. Minutes are too precious to be squandered thoughtlessly.

The Boston Congregationalist makes the grave assertion that Franklin Pierce died a drunkard, and that whisky was the active cause of his death.—Exchange.

How many more ghouls are going to tear open the grave that they may slander the dead? This Congregationalist pretends to be a religious paper. We believe that people who would slander the dead would steal, and we believe the cautious hypocrites who assail the dead because they cannot reply, are too mean and contemptible to be noticed by respectable people. We hate these slanders and all their kind!

The Boston Evening Times says: White satin double-breasted vests are coming into fashion among our city swells. They are to be worn in connection with a double-breasted frock coat, the edge of the vest just appearing inside the coat rolls. Monogram veils are now the latest wrinkle among our fashionable young ladies. Those of fawn color and gray are most in vogue—the monogram being embroidered in colors in the centre.

Professor Schaff, of New York, has returned from Europe, where he completed arrangements for the evangelical alliance to be held in New York next autumn.

BISHOP ATKINSON.—We learn from the Wilmington Journal that this eminent prelate has been detained in Baltimore by slight indisposition. He is expected home about the last of present week.

READY FOR ALL EMERGENCIES.—A box keeper in Macon advertises a fine old Whisky that will make a man drunk, and a patent cordial that will almost instantly make him sober again. He is evidently a man of business.

Lucy Stone wants to argue that woman should not be made a soldier when she votes, because she "peril her life when a soldier is born."

A newly married man down East says if he had an inch more of happiness he could not possibly live.—His wife is obliged to roll him on the floor and pat him with a brick bat every day to keep him from being too happy.

The Viceroy of Egypt is going into sugar manufacture, and has ordered three million dollars worth of machinery for the purpose in Paris.

Bishop Doane, of New York, said at recent Diocesan Convention, that no clergyman's salary ought to be permitted to be less than $1,000 per year.

A census shows the population of Atlanta, Ga., to be 29,166—whites 15,982; colored, 13,184.

LATEST NEWS.

Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Revenue $289,000.

The President has pardoned Anderson, Patterson and Elson, sent from Richmond to the Albany penitentiary for conspiracy to defraud the Revenue.

The Court took no action on the Verger case to-day, the Attorney General and Verger's counsel not having agreed upon the manner of procedure.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Advices received at the Agricultural Department indicate a falling off of the tobacco crop of one-third in Virginia and Maryland, and one-tenth in Kentucky. The estimated falling off in the West will be largely increased by the early killing frosts which have badly damaged the unripened tobacco. The bulk of the crop has been saved.

Butterfield had intimations from both Grant and Boutwell that his resignation was desired. Grant wants a solid businessman in the place.

The widely published report that Justice Swaine dissented from the Court's opinion in the Verger habeas corpus case, is incorrect. Justice Swaine announced from his seat that Justice Miller, who was absent, dissented, and that lead to the mistake.

The papers publish a reported interview between the President and Senator Thayer of Nebraska, on the subject of the Mississippi elections, from which it appears that the President supports Alcorn,

New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The celebrated cotton case of the United States vs. Vernon K. Stevenson has been decided in favor of Stevenson, the Judge holding that the cotton in question never belonged to the Confederate Government, and instead of being shipped to New York in violation of the act of Congress, it was shipped from a Confederate port to a foreign country in violation of the blockade of Wilmington, but this could not change the title or work a forfeiture to the United States, unless seized as a prize of war.

Wilmington.

WILMINGTON, Oct. 26.—The case of the Cuba was resumed before the Commissioner to-day. Mr. Davis, for the defence, desired to introduce some of the officers as witnesses; Mr. Phelps for the Government, objected. After some discussion the Commissioner decided that the officers were competent as witnesses. After examining two witnesses, eliciting nothing important, the Court adjourned till to-morrow.

Foreign.

HAVANA, Oct. 26.—A decree of the constituent Cortes, establishing unrestricted liberty of religion in Cuba and Porto Rico, has been promulgated, and has gone into effect as the law of the land.

The document is exceedingly liberal in its terms. It declares that Spain cannot remain removed from the general movement of Europe and the world; and adds that this consideration is more powerful for the Antilles, because they lie near a continent where liberty of religion is recognized by law.

One clause of the decree provides that no person shall be prevented from holding office under the government by reason of religious belief. The decree is received with general satisfaction by the populace. The city is very tranquil.

THE GOLD RING.—LATEST DEVELOPMENT.—We have published several statements from various New York papers, in reference to the controversy as to the complicity of certain of the officials of the Administration with the late "gold ring" and movement. The New York World contains the following summary of the controversy:

"If Mr. Jay Gould has made false statements, it is possible to prove them false. Until such proof is furnished, the recent gold speculation must seem to the public to be brought scandalously near the doors of the President. The evidence of his complicity is not conclusive; but unless Mr. Gould's credibility can be shaken and destroyed, the President must stand before the country in a most unenviable light. Mr. Gould does not deal in vague assertions. His statements are definite and specific, giving names, dates, and circumstances; and therefore admitting of easy disproof, if they are not founded upon facts. Until his credit as a witness is successfully impeached, the transactions must have a very ugly look. Mr. Gould asserts:

"1. That his intimacy with Mr. Corbin, Gen. Grant's brother-in-law, has been close and confidential, and that, during the summer, their meetings and interviews were almost daily.

"2. That Gen. Butterfield was appointed Assistant Treasurer by Mr. Corbin's influence and with a view to favor his speculations; that it was at first intended that Catherwood, Corbin's son-in-law, should be Assistant Treasurer, but it was thought that this appointment would be attended with too much danger, and Catherwood was bought off by a promise of one-fourth of the profits made by Corbin and Gould. Butterfield was pitched upon as a man well calculated to cloak the contemplated speculation.

A newly married man down East says if he had an inch more of happiness he could not possibly live.—His wife is obliged to roll him on the floor and pat him with a brick bat every day to keep him from being too happy.

The Viceroy of Egypt is going into sugar manufacture, and has ordered three million dollars worth of machinery for the purpose in Paris.

Bishop Doane, of New York, said at recent Diocesan Convention, that no clergyman's salary ought to be permitted to be less than $1,000 per year.

The journey of the French Embassy to the Suez Canal will cost $150,000, gold, besides pin money.

"Boots Polished Inside" is displayed on a sign in Virginia city.

A Baltimore Correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette writes:

During the season of the English opera, which extended over three weeks, the President never once visited the theatre; but last night, the second night of the Lydia Thompson Burlesque Troupe, he occupied a box, and witnessed the performance with infinite relish and gusto. Burlesques is evidently very much to the President's taste.

Fine Chinchilla Over Coats at H. & B. Emanuel's

Yesterday was cold and sharp. The winter has set in vigorously, and prognosticates a long continuance of his icy reign. We saw but few wagons on the streets.

The "Catawba House" is now in full blast, being supplied with all the delicacies, both solids and fluids, that the country affords. This is an admirable place to take a "smile" or get a delicious lunch. The Messrs. Sprinkles are adepts at their business and know how to fix up things exactly to suit the taste.

Messrs. M. L. Wriston & Co. have built up a splendid business, and their regular trade sales attract dealers from all the surrounding country. Those who heed not the ringing of their bell little know what bargains they may loose. This house has already won a wide reputation, and this day, is an institution which Charlotte could not dispense with.—Gentlemen, we wish you the success commensurate with your merits.

Silk Mixed Business Suits at H. & B. Emanuel's.

Fine Beaver Suits as good as custom made, selling cheap at H. & B. Emanuel.

R. F. Davidson has taken the large store lately occupied by J. Bauman & Co., "House of all Nations," and opened by far the largest, best assorted and most elegant stock of furniture ever brought to this market. Indeed, it is just what has long been wanted in our growing city—a first-class furniture wareroom—and ladies cannot fail to be pleased with his elegant sets, &c.

J. S. BROADWAY'S GALLERY.—We have recently visited this point of attraction in order "to procure the shadow ere the substance fails," and was more than pleased with Mr. B.'s success as a photographer. He has seven first-class English and French Cameras, such as have never been in this part of the State before, and certainly does take as life-like pictures as we ever saw. Having had our "phiz" taken in several galleries that have national reputations, we can confidently say, those taken by Broadway are by far the best in hand. Now is a good time to call on him.

Ladies go to H. & B. Emanuel's to buy fine Alpacas at 35 cents per yard.

Boots and Shoes of all kinds at the Lowest prices at H. & B. Emanuel.

OUTRAGE UPON THE AMERICAN FLAG IN ASUNCION.—General McMahon, late United States Minister to Paraguay, who has just reached this port in the steamer Berlin, left the Government of Lopez in July, when he received his recall. He says at the time of the evacuation of Asuncion, he left the United States legation in charge of the Italian Minister, and one of the first acts of the Brazilian troops was to sack the house occupied by the legation, destroy the flag, and take possession of some two hundred thousand dollars in specie which had been left there on deposit. To accomplish that object, the iron safes were blown open with gunpowder, and the archives of the legation were scattered in the street, where a number of them were picked up by Mr. Worthington, then United States Minister to the Argentine Confederation, who was on a visit to Asuncion.

"Do you think, doctor," asked an anxious mother, "that it would improve little Sohn's health to take him to the springs and let him try the water?" "I haven't a doubt of it, madam." "What spring would you recommend, doctor?" "Any springs, madam, where you can find plenty of soap."

WORTHY OF IMITATION.—A rich man died in Bangor, Maine, last week, and left $1,000 to each of the editors of the city, as a mark of his appreciation of their unrewarded labors in behalf of the public.

A New Orleans attorney, in a recent case, spoke of that "elongated member which assists in sustaining the body in its efforts at locomotion." He had reference to his client's legs. His client was a young lady who had been bitten by a dog.
